

OPEN HOUSE

“SQUARE & COMPASSES DAY”

Simon W. Robinson Masonic Lodge

Lexington, MA

Saturday, October 13th, 2007 from 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

A rare event, the Freemasons across Massachusetts will throw open their doors and host a state-wide open house to inform the public about Freemasonry, America’s oldest charitable organization and social fraternity. We ARE NOT a secret society – we are a society with secrets.

Come down and ask us what they are – you may be surprised.

Who are the Freemasons? Do you know?

Come on down to our Lodge and learn about this ancient fraternity that is steeped in history and referenced in so many recent movies!

Take a tour of our Lodge building, learn about Masonic history in Lexington and Massachusetts, meet and talk to some of our members and ask them questions.

Enjoy some BBQ and refreshments!

ALL FOR FREE!

Applications for membership will be available if you ask. We never solicit membership. YOU must take the first step.

Lexington Masonic Lodge is on the corner of Hancock and Bedford streets across from the Battle Green
